LEADERSHIP
INITIATIVE
AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY

The NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE (NPLI) at Harvard University is a collaboration between the Harvard School of Public Health, the Harvard Kennedy School and US government agencies. Its goal is to improve leadership skills for emergency preparedness and resilience in businesses and institutions. It emphasises meta-leadership, fostering collaboration and innovation to address the complex challenges posed by emergencies such as natural disasters, cyber-attacks, supply chain disruptions or pandemics.

INTRODUCING THE

TRANSATLANTIC RESILIENCE INSTITUTE

getresilient.org

The cross-sector network for a stronger tomorrow

As part of the Leadership Preparedness Symposium with keynote speakers from the HARVARD UNIVERSITY, we are launching the Transatlantic Resilience Institute. Our goal is to create a platform, fostering dialogues and creation of interdisciplinary networks across the stakeholder ecosystem.

For resilient industries and critical infrastructure.
